

I Want to be a Packer ---Kids Activities for Mule Days 2014

There are new and exciting events at Mule Days—Friday, May 23rd through Sunday, May 25th. All activities are free. Admission to the fairgrounds is free for all adults and youth. Join in the fun at the I Want to be a Packer activities center on the main walkway to the grandstand.

Mule Days Pioneer Activities at the Historic Covered Wagon

Churn your own butter, Stamp your own leather concho and make your own Buzz Saw

Packer Makeover

Plenty of wild rags, chaps, chinks, hats and authentic packer wear to dress up for pictures with Josephine the world famous donkey. Our professional photographers will take your kids portraits for free and hand you the pictures at the booth.

U.S. Forest Service Junior Packer Corral-Kid's Stick Rodeo Events

Grab your stick mules for contests throughout the weekend: riding, roping and games

I Want to be a Packer Passport Program

Pick your passport up and explore the fairgrounds to participate in fun activities at the Forest Service, BLM, Backcountry Horsemen and UC Davis exhibits that celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Wilderness Act. Fun going-ons that promote fire safety and wilderness stewardship.

Free Fishing at the Lions Club Fish Ponds

The Department of Fish and Wildlife & Lions Club provide fishing, rods and help at free fishing Saturday night and Sunday morning

Packing School for Youth

Kids 10 years and older are invited to learn how to groom, saddle and pack mules at the kids packing school Saturday, 4:30 to 6:00 PM at the West Track. Parents must sign release form

Clown School

Join Mike Hayhurst at 11 AM, Sunday at the Jr. Packer Corral for a course in how to be a rodeo clown.

Main Arena Events in the Mule Days Shows

All youth are invited to participate in these events that take place in the main arena. All kids participating enter for free. Admission is required for adults who want to watch the shows.
